

Linda Pataky, SHRM Serves as the Human Resource Manager at Lorain County Public Health, where I support workforce development, employee relations, and organizational operations. My work focuses on helping supervisors navigate workplace challenges, strengthen team communication, and build supportive environments that allow public health professionals to succeed. I am passionate about developing practical strategies that strengthen the public health workforce and support the mission of improving community health.