

Tara Jimison, DNP, RN, TTS - Tara Jimison serves as the Director of Nursing at Clermont County Public Health in Ohio. She actively leads and contributes to quality improvement initiatives, performance management strategies, and multidisciplinary task groups supporting community health service programs, including communicable disease prevention, community health assessments, and community health improvement planning. In addition, she serves as Co-Chair of the Southwest Ohio Public Health Association Public Health Nurse Section, where she collaborates with partners to advance public health nursing practice and professional development.