

Garrett Guillozet, MPA, REHS, has served as Health Commissioner of the Delaware Public Health District since 2023, and previously served as Health Commissioner of the Ross County Health District from 2020 to 2023. He brings 20 years of public health experience, including service as Chair of the Ohio Public Health Advisory Board, Treasurer of the Ohio Public Health Association, Past President of the Ohio Environmental Health Association, and current service as an At-Large Director of the Association of Ohio Health Commissioners. He is an Ohio Registered Environmental Health Specialist and an Advanced Emergency Medical Technician. He received his undergraduate degree from Ohio Northern University and a Master of Public Administration in Public Health Policy from Kent State University.